Preliminary Remarks

This is the first Statement of Votes prepared and tabled by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer (the "Office") since the coming into force of The Election Act, 1996 (the "Act"), on January 1, 1997. The Act was amended by the coming into force of The Election Amendment Act, 1998 (the "Amendment Act"), effective May 12, 1998. The prevailing Amendment Act, for the first time, established the Chief Electoral Officer as an independent Officer of the provincial Legislative Assembly. The adoption of the Act and its subsequent amendment concluded a major reform of the Province's electoral law and is consistent with the Province's long standing commitment to uphold the integrity of the electoral process.

The Office, under the direction of the Chief Electoral Officer of Saskatchewan, is responsible for the administration of provincial elections, by-elections and provincial election finances under the Act. The mandate of the Office is the conduct of fair and impartial administrative and financial electoral practices ensuring compliance with the Act. The objective of the mandate is to ensure the Saskatchewan electorate's confidence in the integrity of the electoral process.

Issuance of Writ

On August 19, 1999, the Twenty-third Saskatchewan Legislature was dissolved, pursuant to section 3 of The Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act, 1978, by the Honourable J.E.N. Wiebe, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan. Also on the 19th of August, an Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council was passed, pursuant to section 31 of the Act, directing the Chief Electoral Officer to issue a Writ of Election to each of the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituency returning officers enabling the Saskatchewan electorate to go to the polls on September 16, 1999. An Election Calendar for the Twenty-fourth provincial general election is included on the last page of the Official Report.

At dissolution, standing in the Legislative Assembly was: 41 New Democrat, 10 Saskatchewan Party, 5 Liberal, 1 Independent and 1 vacant.

Provincial Constituency Boundaries

The provincial constituency boundaries were as enacted in 1994 under The Representation Act, 1994, based on the recommendations of the Constituency Boundaries Commission, 1993 (the "Commission"), as established under The Constituency Boundaries Act, 1993. The Commission recommended the establishment of fifty-eight (58) provincial constituencies inclusive of two (2) northern constituencies and fifty-six (56) southern constituencies of equal voter size. The Province's constituency boundaries and Directory of Communities are set out in Appendices IX, X and XI.

Constituency Returning Officers

An important part of maintaining election readiness is having constituency returning officers for the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituencies. The Province's returning officers, for each of the constituencies, were nominated based on the recommendations of Saskatchewan's registered political parties. Appointed by Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, constituency returning officers were responsible for the free and fair conduct of the Province's Twenty-fourth provincial general election. See Appendix I for a listing of constituency returning officers.

Provincial Political Parties

The September 16, 1999, election acknowledged five (5) provincial political parties for purposes of fielding candidates. Pursuant to section 231 of the Act, the Office recognized the existence of the following political parties in the Register of Political Parties[1]:

New Democratic Party, Sask. Section
New Green Alliance
Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan
Saskatchewan Liberal Association
The Saskatchewan Party

In August, pursuant to subsection 227(1)(a) of the Act, the Office deleted, as per their request, the Reform Party of Saskatchewan from the of Register Political Parties. In this regard, the Office deregistered the Reform Party of Saskatchewan on August 23, 1999.

See Appendix II for a list of registered political parties, their respective leaders and chief official agents.

Candidate Nomination

Nomination of candidates concluded on August 31, 1999. At the close of nomination 206 candidates had been nominated: 58 New Democrat, 16 New Green Alliance, 14 Progressive Conservative, 58 Liberal, 58 Saskatchewan Party and 2 Independent. None of the 206 candidates withdrew their candidacy prior to the election. Appendix III sets out candidates by provincial constituency.

Enumeration

From the 19th of August through to the 28th, an enumeration of eligible electors was conducted for each of the Province's 2,712 polling divisions. The Province's enumerators sat on September 13, 1999, pursuant to section 26 of the Act, to make necessary revisions to the voters' list. As a result of these efforts, 622,500 provincial residents were declared eligible to vote, as established on the revised voters' list. Those residents not recognized on the revised voters' list were able to register to vote by swearing a declaration at an advance poll or on polling day.

---

[1] The following Statement of Votes Appendices abbreviate the names of the Province's registered political parties as follows: New Democratic Party, Sask. Section - N.D.P.; New Green Alliance - NGA; Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan - P.C.; Saskatchewan Liberal Association - L.; The Saskatchewan Party - Sask.

Voting

On the 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th days of September, 150 advance polls were conducted in the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituencies. To facilitate electorate participation, special polling stations were established in seventy-two (72) hospitals and five (5) correctional facilities. Regular polling stations were open from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. CST on September 16, 1999, enabling the Province's 622,500 eligible voters the opportunity to exercise their democratic franchise. Eligible voters unable to attend a regular, special or advance poll were entitled to vote by absentee ballot.

Electoral Results

Unofficial electoral results were published on the evening of September 16, 1999, resulting in 29 New Democrat, 25 Saskatchewan Party and 4 Liberal members' elect. None of the candidates were elected by acclamation. Deposits were forfeited by 101 of the Province's 206 candidates, pursuant to section 47 of the Act, for not obtaining at least one half of the total number of valid votes cast for the candidate elected. The 101 candidates forfeiting their deposits included: 10 New Democrat, 16 New Green Alliance, 14 Progressive Conservative, 44 Liberal, 15 Saskatchewan Party and 2 Independent.

On September 28, 1999, constituency returning officers tabulated the results of votes cast in the advance polls, special provision polls and by absentee ballot. These figures were then reflected in the relevant constituency results concluding the final count. Upon completion of the final count, on October 9, 1999, each of the Province's constituency returning officers made a Return to the Writ of Election.

On November 12, 1999, the Office published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 95, No. 45) a notice of receipt of the Return to the Writ and the names of fifty-six (56) candidates elected. As a result of two judicial recounts, pursuant to section 155 of the Act, notice of receipt of the Return and the names of candidates elected for the constituencies of Saskatoon Southeast and Wood River were not published on the November 12th date.

Judicial Recounts

Pursuant to section 155 of the Act, judicial recounts were conducted in the constituencies of Saskatoon Southeast and Wood River. Under the Act, a constituency returning officer, upon request by any candidate or business manager, is legislated to apply to the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench (the "Court") to ask the Court to undertake a judicial recount where, if, after final count, the margin of victory of the candidate declared to be elected is less than the total number of all unopened ballot envelopes, rejected ballots and ballots objected to.

In the constituency of Saskatoon Southeast, on final count the New Democratic Party candidate was declared elected with a plurality of 36 votes. On judicial recount, the Court held the September 28th result for Saskatoon Southeast null and void. On appeal, the decision was reversed by the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal resulting in the New Democratic Party candidate being declared elected.

In the constituency of Wood River, upon final count, the Liberal and Saskatchewan Party candidates each received the same number of votes. Pursuant to section 148 of the Act, the constituency returning officer cast a ballot to break the tie. As a result, the Liberal candidate was declared elected. On judicial recount, pursuant to section 155, the Court upheld the result.

On January 14, 2000 and February 18, the Office, pursuant to section 174 of the Act, published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 96, No. 2 and Vol. 96, No. 7) a notice of receipt of the Return to the Writ and the named candidate elected for the constituencies of Saskatoon Southeast and Wood River, respectively.

See Appendices IV, V and VI for the electoral results of the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituencies.

Controvert Proceedings

On February 24, 2000, The Saskatchewan Party, pursuant to The Controverted Elections Act, 1978 (the "Controverted Act"), filed a petition in the Court seeking to set aside the electoral result of the judicial recount for the constituency of Wood River. On May 15, 2000, prior to trial, the incumbent filed an Admission of Undue Election with the Court. As a result, pursuant to section 26 of the Controverted Act, the Wood River electoral result was declared null and void and was set aside. On May 29, 1999, a Writ of Election was issued to fill the vacancy so created. Eligible voters in the constituency of Wood River returned to the polls on June 26, 2000.

Comparative Vote and Ballot Summary
